RESPONSE TEAM:
No Information to report

PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE:
Bob Reddington would like to create a mini news letter to inform members of issues that may come up before the quarterly meeting. (Example Marijuana)
In the February Bob would like to devote most of the newsletter to the elections and the nominees.
Mary Alinen advised if someone has information for the news letter to get it in as soon as possible.
Email for the news letter is azevidence@gmail.com

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE:
Nancy McKay-Hills advised that the information on the Found Property legislation was sent to John Thomas the lobbyist of for the Chief's of Police (COP). He gave ideas on how to format the information and advised how to recommend the core legislation. He advised that we should wait until the next COP meeting to answer any last minute questions. Once it is approved by the COP the bill will be brought forward.

The bill will be presented at the next COP meeting in 2011. John Thomas advised not to push not publishing in the newspapers.
A question was asked about who uses the website for their Found Property. Gilbert Police Department uses the City website.

Good of the Order:

- Jan Schmitt from Yuma Police Department asked if everyone could introduce themselves so that new members could put faces to the names.
- Nancy asked which agencies were selling their weapons. Apache Junction sells their weapons.
  A discussion was held about destroying weapons.
- C.J. Blackwell asked about abandon vehicles from other countries. He was advised that there are federal regulations on foreign vehicles.
  He may want to check if the tow company would buy the vehicle.
